Empson Wines Canada is very proud to relaunch Seven Terraces wines from the South Island of New Zealand. Now under a beautiful and modern new label, designed right here in Canada, this wine is sourced from some of the best vineyards in Canterbury. This wine is now made by renowned winemaker Alan McCorkindale, who has twice been named New Zealand's Winemaker of the Year, and it delivers exceptional value from the premier region of Canterbury.

91 Points – Daenna Van Mulligen, WineScores.ca (Sept 2020): “Cherries, raspberries and mixed sweet spice, leather, cocoa, and rainforest floor/wet cedar aromas lead to a juicy and approachable palate. Easy and light-bodied it has similar red fruit and earthy flavours to mimic the nose. Silky and fresh and entirely quaffable.”
